

Bacchus Beyond Discover Tasting

Definitely not just for the Vicar!

The Spanish wines from Jerez have an unparalleled history and include some of the finest, most carefully vinified, aged and matured wines of the world. However, the anglicised name of Jerez - Sherry - brings with it quite a lot of baggage as us Brits often associate the word Sherry with memories of Aunt Celia or Granny being served their compulsory glass of Harvey's Bristol Cream at Christmas. In the defence of wines of Jerez, our Definitely not just for the Vicar tasting will take place in International Sherry Week to showcase Sherries to suit different budgets and occasions. The aim is to demystify the great wines of Jerez, to taste them alongside other great oxidised-style wines in our range and to recommend options to pair them with different foods. While some will be bone dry others will be sweet enough to please Aunt Celia and all will showcase the quality and variety that is the hallmark of the wines of Jerez.
